Jackrabbit Technologies Selected as Best Places to Work Finalist

Class Management Software Provider Ranks Eighth Among Elite Workplaces in the Charlotte Area

CHARLOTTE, NC – November 8, 2011 - Jackrabbit Technologies, leading provider of web-based solutions for class-based businesses, was recently recognized as one of Charlotte's Best Places to Work at a luncheon event hosted at the Charlotte Convention Center by the award's sponsor, the Charlotte Business Journal. The annual awards are chosen from nominations submitted to the Business Journal each year on behalf of hundreds of companies across the Charlotte metro area

Sixty finalists were chosen in three business categories. Jackrabbit Technologies ranked 8th in the Small Business category, improving its 15th place ranking in 2010.

"The Best Places to Work ranking is exciting to us because it is generated by independent input from each of our employees. The creativity of the finalists shared during the event provides us with ideas to consider for our employees so that we can continue to provide a work environment that is well-accepted and appreciated by our team," comments Mark Mahoney, Jackrabbit's President and CoFounder.

The Charlotte Business Journal's 2011 Best Places to Work ranking were determined by aggregating the results of detailed employee surveys by Quantam Workplace, an independent human-resources survey company. Each survey question was assigned a point value, which was used in determining each company's final score.
